

LIFESTYLE À LA BADEN

Long before the turn of the nineteenth century Markgräfler Hof was a favourite haunt in the Freiburg hospitality scene. The former city palace of the von Kageneck family, this neoclassical jewel has been restored with great attention to detail, charming all who value an historical ambiance.

With our elegant antiques, modern art and an innovative menu featuring local dishes, Markgräfler Hof continues to showcase the lifestyle and cuisine peculiar to Baden.

We look forward to seeing you here – for a family celebration, an after-work date, a pub crawl, a meeting with important business partners – and we'll help to make your event a special one.

The abundance of gourmet delights in our be-loved Baden inspire us every day: homebaked breads and cakes for breakfast (available also to non-house guests), creative menus, a light lunch, a lavish buffet for all your friends...

Chèvre cream cheese on a small salad, Maibock from our own shoot... our kitchen crew is committed to a fresh and zesty combination of local products.

And what would we do without Markgräfler Hof's famous wine cellar? For a glass at the bar or the full vintage lineup with your menu – enjoy tangy summer wines, authentic, genuine, lively. Wine is pure joie de vivre!!

For work or vacation?

Our hotel is the perfect headquarters for a business appointment or your (weekend) trip. Comfy, modern rooms make you feel right at home. Pullout sofas or kids' beds, cable TV, WLAN, desks, showers, WC...

Shop till you drop, picturesque Old Town flair...

Markgräfler Hof is situated right in the centre of Freiburg – alias “Little Venice” – named for its numerous and idyllic waterways called Bächle. Stroll across the colourful market-place at the Minster Square, climb the Schlossberg, ramble through the museums and galleries, go hiking in the Black Forest, do winter sports, cross over into Alsace or go roaming through Markgräflerland. Whatever... we never run out of ideas!
